Dear Mr. Dulles:

I understand that my good friend, John Starnes, in Ottawa, has written to you recently concerning the possibility of your speaking to our Club sometime in the fall or next spring.

As you may know, this is a luncheon club which has existed in Montreal since the beginning of this century and over the years has attracted as guests of honour leading citizens of the world, and is recognized as one of the best forums in Canada for the expression of opinions.

Our attendance at these Monday meetings ranges from four hundred to eight hundred while our membership is composed of a very representative group of twenty-five hundred Montrealers.

We would be very pleased if you could accept our invitation and could assure you of a large and interested audience. Realizing how busy you are we would make every effort to arrange a date satisfactory to yourself either prior to or after Christmas. As mentioned above, our meetings are held on Mondays at noon and with the exception of September 28, October 5 and October 26, we could offer you almost any Monday you desire. John mentioned that you might be coming to Canada after Christmas and perhaps this time might be more satisfactory to you.

Yours sincerely,

Allan G. Magee
President
